

Donor Privacy Policy

St. Vincent de Paul values your participation and support and is committed to protecting your privacy. St. Vincent de Paul's site is a safe environment for anyone who visits, makes a donation or volunteers.

We're committed to protecting your privacy

St. Vincent de Paul maintains strict customer information privacy policies. St. Vincent de Paul takes great care to ensure that your information is not compromised by unauthorized persons.

St. Vincent de Paul does not sell, rent, exchange or share your personal information with any organization or individual. St. Vincent de Paul will not divulge personal information to any other organization or individual other than that necessary to fulfill online donations.

St. Vincent de Paul does not sell or share our information with telemarketing centers. St. Vincent de Paul does not use telephone marketing to solicit funds. St. Vincent de Paul will only use your phone number if we need to verify information or occasionally to thank you for your contribution, ask for your opinion or invite you to a special event.

What information do we collect?

When you make a donation, volunteer, or schedule a food drive, St. Vincent de Paul may ask you for your name, address, e-mail address, telephone number, fax number as well as any other relevant information (i.e. handicap for the golf tournament).

When you visit St. Vincent de Paul website, St. Vincent de Paul also collects some non-identifying information from server logs. This includes total number of visitors, pages viewed and frequently used search words.

How do we use you information?

St. Vincent de Paul uses non-identifying information (aggregate data) to analyze website usage and to improve the content and design of the site.

St. Vincent de Paul uses personally identifiable information you provide about yourself: a) to respond to your questions or comments about services; b) to fulfill requests to volunteer or conduct a food drive; c) to process your donation, verify your credit card and send you a tax-deductible receipt; d) confirm a donation; e) to thank you; f) to send you additional information about St. Vincent de Paul programs and services; i) to protect the security and integrity of the site; j) to protect against a threat of safety or destruction of property; and k) to protect against legal liability.

St. Vincent de Paul may disclose to third parties aggregate statistics about donations, volunteers, orders and advocates (i.e. total number of donors, total amount of donations for specific periods, average gift size, total number of volunteers per specific project or event). These statistics will not include any personally identifying information.

To verify on-line donations St. Vincent de Paul needs your name, address, credit card number and expiration date to process your transaction. A third party is used to collect your donation information which is then transmitted to St. Vincent de Paul. Their state-of-the-art firewall's and encryption technology offer the highest level of security to ensure the confidentiality of your transactions.

St. Vincent de Paul will not use personal information in any way other than described in this policy. St. Vincent de Paul requires employees, agents and contractors who have access to Personal Information to protect that information consistent with this Privacy Policy.
